Q: WHAT MUSIC DO YOU PLAY?

A: WHATEVER THE OCCASION CALLS FOR...

“The only type of music we don’t play
is bad music.”

frequently asked questions 3.0

Our inventory of 10,000+ songs includes the best examples of virtually every type and style of music ever recorded. As such, we can produce a music show for your occasion to suit any audience taste. Most often, we play a mix of popular slow-dance and party favorites from the 50’s through the 90’s. At Company parties in particular, there’s usually a pretty wide age range and some diverse tastes. Generally, we’ll start out with well-known standards, and evolve toward newer, faster party music toward the end of the evening. However, each event is different, and some audiences enjoy a heavier blend of country or big band music, while others ask for a more contemporary mix throughout.

We invest in a multitude of new songs each month, ensuring that the latest songs on the radio are on our playlist. We pre-screen all of our music, and specifically mark songs that contain lyrics or themes unsuited to a particular age range. Our staff has the experience to produce music shows suited to any group’s preference, and we back them with a most impressive music library, all of which is catalogued on a computer database for easy selection and retrieval.

Q: HOW MUCH MUSIC DO I CHOOSE?

A: AS MUCH OR AS LITTLE AS YOU'D LIKE...

“We’ll be sure to plan
a variety of songs
they’ll enjoy.”

frequently asked questions 3.1

At a minimum, we need to know the preferences of the audience. We’ll be sure to plan a variety of songs they’ll enjoy. Of course, audiences will surprise you, so we’re constantly “feeling out” the group and fine-tuning the music throughout the event.

It’s also important for us to know your definite ‘Do and Don’t’ song titles. We ask that you consider both your own and your guests’ tastes on the “don’t” list. Even if you’ve grown weary of a popular party song, many of your guests might consider it essential to a good time.

If you want to get very specific, you can choose all of the music for your event. However, please bear in mind that your guests’ tastes may not match your own, and many of your favorite “listen-to” songs may not work well in a “get-up-and-dance” situation. Ideally, you should set a tone, select your special songs, and allow us to produce a show that appeals to the entire guest list.

Q: HOW MUCH MUSIC WILL YOU BRING?

A: TYPICALLY 5,500 TO 6,000 SONGS...

“Requests by you & your guests are more than welcomed.”

Q: WHAT ABOUT LIGHTING?

A: PARTY LIGHTING ARE AMONG THE MOST CONTROVERSIAL OF OUR RECEPTION OPTIONS...

frequently asked questions 3.2

Of course, we'll have “special songs” on hand, usually with a reserve copy of each. We'll also bring a large collection of music suited to your guests' tastes, as well as a wide selection of popularly requested songs. We won't bring our entire music library, since much of it simply isn't suited to a particular event (and the whole collection weighs more than 200 lbs!). Of those 5,500-6,000 songs, a typical five and one half-hour event will involve 100 to 120 songs.

A lot of party-goers simply don't want a “disco show” intruding upon the dignity of their event; at the same time, many guests would enjoy it. It's a very understandable concern. We want your occasion to be remembered as a fun, festive and appropriate celebration. That is why we offer the option of a lighting package at your request. If interested, please ask Roberto for more details on lighting packages and prices for your occasion.
